

SPE-GCS and the Young Professionals committee invite you to attend:

SPE Young Professionals
2010 Emerging Engineers Conference

“Riding the Energy Roller Coaster: Challenges, Innovations & Opportunities”

The Emerging Engineers Conference (EEC) is a one day event focusing on various topics that aims to shape and develop the careers of Young Professionals (YPs). EEC 2010 will feature a group of highly regarded leaders of the industry addressing topics ranging from global energy outlook in the recent times, technological innovations, business side of the energy sector, career management and much more.

Learn about: Technical skills, Leadership skills, Emerging technology, Professional visibility, Networking, and more.

When: Thursday, June 3, Hilton Houston Westchase, 9999 Westheimer Road, Houston TX 77042 USA

How much: $150.00 per attendee. This covers breakfast, lunch and social-networking event.

Register Now at <http://www.spegcs.org/en/cev/reg/1715/>

All attendees will be registered for the event door prize - a new Apple iPad www.apple.com/ipad

Registration includes Social-Networking event at Rio Ranch Restaurant sponsored by PetroSkills

Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Ganesh Thakur, Vice President, Global Advisor for Reservoir Management, and Fellow of Chevron Energy Technology Co, recently nominated by the Society of Petroleum Engineers board of directors as the 2012 SPE President. Thakur is a world-recognized leader in reservoir engineering & simulation, secondary recovery, reservoir and well productivity improvement, heavy oil, horizontal well technology and EOR.

Jim Longbottom, Global Business Development and Marketing Manager for Halliburton Completion Tools. He has extensive experience in the energy sector having worked in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico and North Sea, primarily dealing with completion and sand-control technology. Longbottom holds a BS degree in ocean engineering from Texas A&M University. He has authored several SPE papers and patents. He is also a 2010 graduate of the Halliburton President’s Leadership Excellence Program.

Other presenters will include executives and senior leaders from an array of energy companies and related organizations – including Occidental Oil & Gas, Chevron, Shell, Decision Strategies, Halliburton, and others. 2010 EEC speakers include: David Skinner, Chairman of the Board of Decision Strategies and an original founder of the company and Dr. Zuwa Omoregie, Chief - Reservoir Engineering, Worldwide Engineering, Occidental Oil and Gas.

Don't delay registration! Limited Seats!

For more information contact EEC co-chairs:

Eugenia Rojas Ergv@chevron.com Bharathwaj Kannan Bharathwaj.Kannan@Halliburton.com

SPONSORS

